Customer Reviews

This is the story of Malu, who lived in a cave with her clan in prehistoric Europe, during the last Ice Age. She was brave and adventurous, longing to do things girls were forbidden to do. Read how she raises a wolf pup, teaches herself to hunt with a spear-thrower, and survives alone with her wolf in the wilderness. The author based this story on research of actual Cro-Magnon archaeological sites and artifacts. It is a well written, entertaining book, especially recommended for readers too young for Jean Auel's Earth's Children books

I bought this book for my 9 year old daughter who loves wolves. We both found it interesting and enjoyed reading it. I liked the positive messages it contained (e.g. girl's can be good hunters as well as boys, doing what is right, etc.). I definitely recommend it.

Malu's Wolf is an exiting story about a girl who with the help of a fellow companion (her wolf) fulfills a her wish of being a warrior. I recommend this book to people who like adventures, and love animals, because that's what this story is mostly about. This is one of my favorite books in the whole world. Read it to find out the rest!
