The Hundred Years' War For Kids: The Amazing Story Of The War That Lasted Over A Century - And Changed History Forever

Synopsis

There was one war that lasted longer than any other. It was the Hundred Years' War, which lasted from 1337 to 1453. The Hundred Years' War changed the way wars were fought forever. From then on, armies became larger, more professional, and used more advanced weapons, such as cannons and longbows. This easy-to-read children's book reveals the true story behind this amazing series of Medieval battles between several generations of English and French kings. Discover... * What led to the start of the Hundred Years' War? * Who were the main people behind the war? * Which were the important battles of the Hundred Years' War? * The determined English king who led his army to the most famous battle in English history. * How a peasant teenaged girl led the French army to one of its greatest victories....and Much More! So scroll back up and download this quick and educational book about the Hundred Years' War.
