Customer Reviews

What an awesome collection of novels, written by the best in Contemporary Christian Romance. Each of these ladies have reached into their libraries and chosen one of their very best. Staci Stallings' novel, Deep in the Heart is one of my all time favorites. I have read it over and over and NEVER get tired of it. Debra Ullrick and Debra Lynn Collins are also in my favorite category and have written a wonderful story. This is a wonderful set you will not want to miss having in your collection, especially at this great price. The only problem you will have is not wanting to put it down!

I loved all these books. It was nice to just read good books without all the swearing and sex. I enjoyed seeing the relationships develop, and see how God is part of each and every one.

This book is very good. I enjoyed it very much. It is fast moving and entertaining. It is nice to read a story with romance, excitement and a message all in one very interesting book.

I really enjoyed all 3 books... Hard to put any of them down... Always enjoy a good story with an honest message about God and His love...

7/23: I just finished "Deja vu Bride" by Debra Ullrick and what a fun story it was. Erik, oh what a southern gentleman and a Godly man to boot! Yes, thinking I too could get lost in his eyes...just like Olivia did. I loved his gentle patient ways with Olivia, always taking thought to her reactions and feelings. Livvy, feisty and spunky, all to cover her pain. It was so fun to watch the walls around her heart come down, to watch hope begin to rise in her. Her fun nature about her was precious. I could truly envision her artwork, Debra did such a fantastic job with detail. Definitely a book of real struggles with questions I'm sure we have all asked. I highly recommend this read! (Now I want to read books one and three!! :)) 7/25: Staci Stallings "Deep in the Heart", the reason I got this set...WOW! Again, Stacie does not disappoint. Such an incredible journey. Two hearts from completely different backgrounds, and yet so similar in so many ways. Maggie is brave, courageous, sweet, and lovely. Keith, well, I wouldn't mind working in the horse barn with him, that's for sure. His journey is so powerful. His protectiveness endearing. I highly recommend this read!! 7/25: "Cowgirls Don't Cry" by Debra Lynn Collins was another good read, the last of this set.

Very sweet read. A little close to home for me so brought many tears. Another highly recommended book. A precious set of Coming Home to unconditional love with Papa God and the sweet love of a man.

I have been a fan of all three of these talented authors and when I saw them all together in this set, I had to get it. I had already read Debra Ullrick's story and really enjoyed it. "Deep in the Heart" by Staci Stallings was my favorite in this collection. The plot was interesting, the story well written and the Christian aspects were so inspiring. The characters were well developed and I loved Maggie, the Nanny, her charges and Keith, their older half brother. I really enjoyed this clean romance, that held my attention until the very end. Debra Lynn Collins did a great job on the story of "Cowgirls Don't Cry" and the characters were likable. This is a clean romance, and the author deals with real life issues and how important forgiveness is to the offended and to the offender. I enjoyed this novel and appreciated the spiritual aspects.

This is a wonderful selection of books. Each one is a good and well written story. Recommended for all romance readers.

Refreshing & comical. I love it when the story is based on faith, trying to obey God's Word & dealing with life. Each story kept me spellbound wanting to get to the end to know who was creating the turmoil.
