Customer Reviews

My boyfriend uses these, he's tried numerous different CD's but he tried one Michel Thomas and ended up buying this whole pack. I was not interested in learning spanish but upon hearing these cd's as I sleep and in the car I've found myself actually knowing some words and phrases without even trying. I recommend these CD's to put onto your ipods or phones to listen to if your learning spanish, good value and teacher.

This is just absolutely awful. I listen to Spanish lessons in my car, and after the great reviews of this, I bought the set. Terrible. The teacher speaks with no inflection at all -- with the exception of an overly exaggerated second-to -the -last syllable for verbs. And, he makes his students speak the same way. In addition, he provides obscure explanations for changes: "the t and the n are not strong enough to hold up the e, so it splits into two parts -- an i and an e -- when you change verb tenses." This is something I was told in the 3rd grade, but it doesn't help anyone analyze which other verbs won't have "strong" enough letters. The lack of inflection in his instruction is mind-numbingly boring. and the voices of the students are just flat out annoying. I have never heard a native Spanish speaker speak anything like this. So... will the third CD be any better? I have no idea.

This is a wonderful review of all the Spanish verb tenses. Michel helps you create your own mental structure that links all the verb tenses easily.
