Superhero For A Day: The Magic Magic Eight Ball

Synopsis

What would you do if you found a magic eight ball that had all the answers? Not just answers to "yes or no" questions, but ALL the answers. Answers to questions like, "What's going to be on tomorrow's history quiz?" "How can I get back at the school bully?" and "Where do I aim to beat this ring toss carnival game and win a stuffed gorilla the size of a Great Dane?" Jared Foreman just found such a magic eight ball, and he's having the time of his life with it. Unfortunately, he's also attracting the attention of some very bad people – people who will stop at nothing to get what they want. Even more unfortunately, the clock is ticking on his newfound superpower. Can Jared make things right before time runs out? Superhero for a Day: The Magic Magic Eight Ball is a funny, fast-paced story that both girls and boys in grades 3-7 will love.

Dustin Brady is funny! This is his second book I've read, and I look forward to continuing to follow the adventures these characters have started. As a Student Minister, I work with Jr. High Students on a weekly basis, and I can say without a doubt that Dustin has captured their speech, thought processes, and actions almost to a "T"! It's great. As a reader, I just found it fun to get lost in the story for a bit. As I've grown up, obviously so has my "taste" and interest in books. I'm just as comfortable now reading a thick volume on a theological issue. But. This kind of book is what fostered my love for reading, and I'm so glad there's someone out there still writing something like it.

A fun, adventure-filled book that anyone, even the reluctant middle school boys, can find enjoyable! The book's fast pace action and relatable dialogue draws the reader in and keeps him from putting the book down. Without doubt, when he is done, he will already be ready and waiting to find out what happens in the next book of the series!! I'm always looking for more books that boys will enjoy, and I highly recommend Brady's Superhero for a Day.

Who wouldn't want to be a superhero for a day? And what could go wrong? Possibly a lot. Another great read by Dustin Brady. The book has action, adventure, and lots of laughs. Perfect for grades 3-5.

When Jared finds a special magic eight ball -- one that actually knows the future-- what could go wrong? Ha -- plenty, especially when he uses it without exactly thinking through the consequences. Engaging characters and great dialogue keep the story flowing as Jared realizes his new superpower is limited to 24 hours, and that he's supposed to use it for more than goofy pranks. Just when you think you see what's ahead, well, you don't, because the adventure takes some wild turns. Preteens will love this fun and fast-paced book that sneaks in a powerful message about acting responsibly. An original and entertaining read? 'You may rely on it!'

This book was wonderful!! I couldn't put it down! I have several brothers who don't like to read and they will love this book! It had an interesting take on what will happen if a regular kid received something that would give him supernatural powers. This book will grab any kid's attention. Younshou read this book!!!
