The Innocence Of Father Brown, Volume 2: A Radio Dramatization (Father Brown Series)

Synopsis

From London to Cornwall, then to Italy and France, a short, shabby priest takes on bandits, traitors and killers. Why is he so successful? The reason is that after years spent in the priesthood, Father Brown knows human nature and is not afraid of its dark side. Thus he understands criminal motivation and how to deal with it. The award-winning Colonial Radio Theatre on the Air has dramatized G.K. Chesterton's Father Brown stories from The Innocence of Father Brown with a full cast, music score, and sound effects. Included in Vol. 2: •The Invisible Man •The inimitable Father Brown is called to help in the hunt for a mysterious killer, known only as an "invisible man." •The Wrong Shape •Novelist Leonard Quinton has long been an eccentric, but his habits are driving his wife to the point of mania. When death finally comes to Quinton's unconventional home, it's fortunate that Father Brown and his good friend Flambeau are on hand. •The Sins of Prince Saradine •A dream holiday turns into a nightmare for Father Brown and his best friend, Flambeau. Why has the notorious Prince Saradine come to England, and who wants him dead? •The Hammer of God •Norman Bohun is a man with many enemies, so it comes as no surprise when he's eventually murdered. But Father Brown's biggest problem is in identifying a killer who must possess superhuman strength.

Customer Reviews

Father Brown brings a Christian voice to his stories but in a quiet manner that is not in your face. These stories have such a twist and turn that they keep you dangling until the end. It always appears that the bad guy didn't do it until the end and sometimes he didn't do it. It is my type of mystery -keeps you on your toes, without much blood and gore! This last set of CDs, we purchased for our 95 year old priest who loves reading but has problems with his eyes. He is loving them. I give them 4 stars.

Love the Fr. Brown stories! The reader is great and really makes the story come alive! Definitely recommend this recording to others!
