Harboring Hope ~ Brides of Virtue Book #4 Hope Sutton yearned for adventure -- for a life more exciting and satisfying than her boring existence in Pennsylvania. But nothing could have prepared her for the unexpected twist her life would take on the train ride to Whistle Stop, Wyoming. Luke âBearâ<sup>TM</sup> Boone was a recluse â choosing to live a secluded life in the woods, far away from the greed and destruction that had cost him everything. But when a young woman is left for dead in a train accident, Luke has no choice but to open his heart.

Marrying Mercy ~ Brides of Virtue Book #5 Mercy Lawson was the belle of the ball â until the night her disapproving father locked her away and set fire to her bedroom. Now, disfigured and frightened, Mercy knows the only way she can escape her dangerous father and start a new life for herself, is to marry a stranger. But sometimes God has other plans. Cole Boone couldnât<sup>TM</sup> risk another run in with the law. His reputation as a reckless cowboy was well known in Whistle Stop and Sheriff McCabe was just waiting for him to slip up. But nothing, not even the threat of jail time, would stop Cole from protecting the woman he couldnât<sup>TM</sup> resist.

Choosing Charity ~ Brides of Virtue Book #6 Charity Miller was orphaned and widowed in a single moment. Now, alone and expecting a child, Charity had no choice but to pay a woman in Whistle Stop to find her a suitable husband. But how could she ignore the handsome handy man that had captured her heart? Adam DeLane came to Whistle Stop, Wyoming to claim the love of his life. But when he found she had given her heart and her hand to another man, Adam was left heartbroken. He knew he would love again, but he didnât<sup>TM</sup> plan on falling in love so soon â especially not with a woman he was forbidden to see.

Customer Reviews

I love Mail Order Bride stories and boxed sets. This box set is by Jill Maguire and deals with three women who are on their own and must do something to survive in the West. Hope is headed to Whistle Stop with her father to marry when the train they are on derails. Her father is killed and Hope has amnesia. She is rescued by Luke. Mercy is a lovely lady with a over protective father. She is caught in a fire and suffers scars on her face and body. She fears her father started the fire, so she runs away to Whistle Stop to find la husband. She meets Cole who is a retired outlaw and he shelters her. Charity, has lost her husband to Indians. She is pregnant and has agreed to be a mail order bride. These books are stand alone books, but they tie in with each other very nicely. I could not put the books down.

These three sweet romance stories are wonderful! This is the second collection. The first collection talks about previous characters. Each book could be read alone, but it is fun to be familiar with the characters from the previous books. I will read more by this author.

I loved how the stories of volume 1 (the first 3 books of the series) were intertwined and characters appeared in subsequent books. Even though Hope, the first character of this volume, was introduced in the last volume, she did not interact with the previous characters from the first volume. I found that disappointing as I didn't get to see the continuation of the previous characters' stories that I had come to enjoy. All 3 books in this collection seemed rushed and disconnected. Very disappointing.

Immensely enjoyed reading these stories of faith love and happiness found, as I'm sure you will also, highly recommend this collection!

I enjoyed all the stories that were all. About the brides in whole stop. Each story was different but were all connected about the brides to be Thoroughly enjoyed these books and loved how they all had a connection. Very easy and quick reading. Loved the fact that there was no foul language or sex to make a good story.

They were good short stories. I would have liked to see more trials as most people have in a normal life. I know this was just fiction but it needed to sound more real.
